

An aerial photograph of an industrial or commercial site. The facility consists of several large, white-roofed buildings of varying sizes, some with multiple sections. There are numerous parking lots and paved areas with several vehicles, including trucks and cars. A road, identified as Locust Street, runs diagonally across the upper right portion of the image. A road sign with the number 132 is visible on the left side. A dashed line outlines a specific area within the facility. Two yellow callout boxes with black text point to specific features: 'Multi-purpose Building' points to a large white building on the left, and 'Locust Street entrance' points to the road on the right.
